Best in the Business Recognised at 2012 HIA CSR NSW Housing Awards

The 2012 HIA CSR NSW Housing Awards which recognise the State's talent of builders and building companies in the housing industry once again proved to be a successful evening.

RW Stidwill Constructions took out the coveted HIA CSR Home of the Year. The award winning home at Terrey Hills also won the Renovations and Additions Project of the Year and the Renovations and Additions Project Over $800,001 category earlier in the evening.

Art of Kitchens had a triumphant night picking up 4 titles. Awards included Cabinetmaker / Kitchen Manufacturer of the Year and the Medium Kitchen From 12 to 20 sqm category for their project at Galston; and Kitchen Design of the Year and the Most Innovative Use of Materials in a Kitchen or Bathroom award for their project at Bayview.

Castlewood Kitchens were also celebrating with 4 awards.

Congratulating all the winners on such an outstanding achievement, HIA's NSW Executive Director, David Bare, said the awards were a tremendous display of the housing industry's capacity, innovation and resilience in tough times.

"It is encouraging to see that in challenging market conditions HIA's builders and designers have maintained their commitment to excellence. Our members are making a difference today and setting the benchmark for the future. The high calibre of entries shows that support for these awards has yet again been remarkable."

"Major winners tonight can look forward to progressing to HIA's national awards next year and we wish them every success."

The awards were held in front of a sell-out black-tie audience at the Sydney Convention Centre. Special guests included Minister for Planning and Infrastructure Hon Brad Hazzard; Paul Manks, Regional General Manager NSW, CSR Lightweight Systems and HIA's NSW President, Martin Walsh.

This year's awards ceremony applauded the industry 'right here right now' and recognised the best in the business. The evening was hosted by comedian and television host Paul McDermott.

The Association's showcase awards night recognise excellence in housing innovation, material selection, design, construction and services to the NSW residential building industry.

Housing Industry Association (HIA) is the leading industry association in the Australian residential building sector, supporting the businesses and interests of builders, contractors, manufacturers, suppliers, building professionals and business partners.
