Meriton Apartments assumes the mantle of NSW's top builder in 2011/12

Meriton Apartments climbed two places to take the top position on New South Wales' largest builders list, with 1,167 starts, according to the latest HIA-COLORBOND® steel Housing 100 report.

Eden Brae Homes also forged ahead to take second position (well above its rank of sixth in 2010/11), with 867 starts.

McDonald Jones Homes ranked in third place in 2011/12 with 733 starts.

Against a backdrop of a 6 per cent decline in total housing starts to 29,155 in 2011/12, New South Wales' largest 20 builders also experienced a decline in the level of their starts – down by three per cent to a historically low 6,955. The state's largest 20 builders maintained a steady market share of 24 per cent in 2011/12, the HIA-COLORBOND® steel Housing 100 report shows.

HIA's NSW Executive Director, David Bare, said that whilst new home building levels remain at critically low levels in NSW, there are positive signals of a recovery on the horizon. "We expect to see a positive impact of the state government's budgetary measures coming into play from 1st October, namely the additional $8,000 being provided to first home buyers of new dwellings from the Building the State package".

"Another weaker year in housing delivery in 2011/12 reminds us of the challenges that lie ahead however we do believe the beginnings of a recovery will materialise this year. The challenge will be to ensure it is a sustained recovery which addresses the prolonged underbuilding and consequent affordability issues that afflict homebuyers and renters alike," added Mr Bare.
