INFORMATION SHEET

Are you a small business?

As a small business you may be interested to know that the NSW government has appointed a Small Business Commissioner to act as an independent advocate for small businesses in NSW.

Some of the aims of the Small Business Commissioner will be to provide low-cost dispute resolution services and advise government on how best to assist small businesses.

A legal framework is currently being developed to support the role of the Small Business Commissioner and we would welcome any comments or suggested that you may have on the role and functions of the Commissioner.

If you want more information on how you can become involved in this process please contact Renee Nixon on (02) 9978 3333 or email Renee at r.nixon@hia.com.au
